TUESDAY AFTERNOON, MAY 6.

THE LATEST NEWS .- The news we publish under our telegraphic head is important. have little direct information of a revolutionary spirit in Cuba, but it must be inferred from the disposition of the Captain-General and authorities of that Island, who are not mad enough to oppress and incense a pacific and contented people. Their vigilance and severity cannot be without a cause, or they have more cruelty and folly than we have ever attributed to them.

The maturing of these things there, and the preparations making on our own coasts to give aid and comfort to a revolutionary party in Cuba, are at least strikingly coincident.

The energies of our National Executive are put forth with sleepless vigilance; but the adroitness of the actors in the present drama. or tragedy, as the denouement may reveal it. may possibly enable them to elude his power "ENGLISH INSULTS AND IRISH RESENT MENTS!"-It will be perceived that we are rebuked by still another correspondent, for putting the above heading to a communication yesterday. We always defend ourselves, but of course with mildness and due submission. Insult is from in and salio, to leap, and means the act of leaping on; or, in Jakey's parlance, being "down on 'em." If Mr. Bulwer was not "down on" the Boston Celt, we would like to know where he was, and whether people breathe after he does come down with his serious jokes.

LEVY COURT OF THE COUNTY OF WASHINGTON It is announced in the Intelligencer and Republic of this morning, that on yesterday, being the first Monday in May, the President, agreeably to the several acts of Congress in such case made and provided, designated the following Justices of the Peace to be members of the Levy Court for Washington county, (D. C.,) for the term of one year, viz: Henry Naylor and Charles H. Wiltberger, for that part of the county east of Rock Creek and without the limits of Washington; Charles R. Belt and Joshua Peirce, for that part west of Rock Creek and without the limits of Georgetown; Lewis Carbery, Wm. R. Woodward, and Robert White, for that part lying within the limits of Georgetown; and Samuel Drury, Benjamin K. Morsell, John F. Cox, and James Crandell, for that part lying within the limits of the city of Washington.

SHIP LOAD OF ELEPHANTS .- The barque Re-

gatta arrived at New York on Sunday from India, freighted with nine living elephants, a zebu, or Burmese bull, sixteen enormous serpents, including a brace of boa constrictors of twenty-four and sixteen feet in length, besides a wilderness of monkeys, the fretted porcupine, and other live varmints, all consigned to Messrs. P. T. Barnum and Seth B. Howes, intended for the great Museum Caravan to be exhibited in Newark this day. The Tribune adds that one of the most curious features of this Noah's Ark collection is a calf elephant about nine months old, and weaned from its dam on the passage from Ceylon, being but three feet high, and as docile and playful as a kitten. Another is one of the native chiefs of Ceylon, who accompanies the show, in charge of the elephants. This enterprise, the greatest probably since the days of the Flood, has been conducted and brought to a successful issue by Messrs. Stebbins, June, and George Nutter. The elephants were hunted and caught in their native jungles by Messrs. June and Nutter, accompanied by one hundred and sixty of the natives. Their capture was effected by driving two hundred and fifty of them into a kraul or rude pen, constructed in the jungle, out of which they succeeded in securing thirteen-two having died on the passage and another being stolen from the drove. The Regatta has made her passage home, (thirteen nd miles,) stopping at the Cape of Good Hope and the Island of St. Helena, in one hundred and twelve days. The elephant hunters were three months and four days in the jungles before they effected their object.

OPIUM .- The devastation inflicted on the Chinese by the use of opium is truly terrible; yet the commerce of England with China is in no limited degree to supply this baneful drug. It is stated in a letter written by the Rev. Mr. Bridgeman, of Canton, China, to the American Board of Missions, that "there is a great deal of distress in Canton from famine and the use of opium. Of this drug," he says, "there are coming to China, this year, seventy thousand chests, of one hundred and thirty pounds each, which will be sold to the people at a sum total of thirty-five millions of dollars. Thousands are falling by this poison. Almost every day, as I pass through the city, I see its victims dying or dead in the streets."

The advocates of temperance in this country, however, allege that the three hundred and fifty millions of Chinese only pay one-third the sum for opium which the twenty-three millions of Americans pay for intoxicating drinks and to-

PRILIP HONE, esq., naval officer of the port of New York, died yesterday between one and two o'clock. Mr. Hone was for many years a highly respected citizen of that place, and had filled the office of mayor and various other public stations with great ability.

CAPITOL HILL.—The walls of the Columbia Engine-house are being taken down to-day by Mr. Zepheniah Jones, preparatory to building a new three-story edifice for the uses of the company. We hope a good reading-room, a good library, and stated lectures, will be taken into the plan. There are good men and youths in this company, who are well disposed to appreciate and profit by these things.

CENTRE MARKET .- There was nothing unusual at the centre market this morning. Prices remained unchanged from Saturday. Strawberries and green peas have not made a general appearance. Of the former, one or two pints have been brought in. Richardson gave everybody a cool reception; he sold some of the nicest ice-cream at his stand this morning that ever cooled the parched tongue or gratified the

Therefore the Sabbath is the friend of th nation—the family—every man's friend, and never fails to repay true and devoted friendship for it with the most precious blessings for time and eternity.

MAY CELEBRATIONS .- The pupils of primary chool No. 2, fourth district, taught by Miss Middleton, are to spend Thursday afternoon in the pleasant exercises of a May-day celebration. The exercises will commence at four o'clock. Our aldermen and common council have all been invited to witness the pretty scene of crowning the Queen of May.

The children of Mrs. Hinton's school are to hold their festival on the afternoon of the ninth. We shall hope for general sunshine and gentle zephyrs.

It is with regret we learn that the health of Chief Justice CRANCH, which had been improving for a short time, has changed again for the worse. To-day, though he feels easier than yesterday, he is slowly sinking. His mind wavers, and his decease is an event his many warm and devoted friends, and the people of this District, will no doubt soon be called upon PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLIES .- The Old Schoo General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, of the United States, will hold its next annual ession at St. Louis, May 15. On the same day the New School General Assembly will comnence its sessions at Utica, N. Y. Among the delegates to the latter is Hon. J. R. Giddings, who was appointed by the Grand River Presbytery to agitate the Slavery question.

REV. DR. RIDDLE, of Pittsburgh, is to de liver the opening sermon at the meeting of the New School General Assembly at Utica. Rev NORTON A. MILLS, of Cincinnati, will preach the discourse on Home Missions.

A SLIGHT CHANGE .- According to Journal No. 1 of the Post Office Department, kept by Benj. Franklin, there were not quite one hundred pennyweights of letters sent through the Department from January 1st to April 1st, 1778. This year, in the same time, there were es than ten millions of penny ried by the mails. In 1778 the whole business of this Department was recorded in an eight quire blank-book by one person. THREE CENT PIECES.—The coinage of these pieces has reached to about $16,000, and is progressing rapidly. By instructions from the Department one half of this coinage is to be reserved for the assistant Treasury and Govern-ment depositories in distant cities, who will, by exchanges and otherwise, introduce them into circulation. The balance will be paid out at the Mint, in amounts of $30, $60, and $150. The issue will take place on the 8th instant.

CAPONS.—We are informed, says the Mount Holly (N. J.) Morror, that friend Abel Rulon, of Springfield, sold in the Philadelphia market ten pairs of capons, fatted by him, for the handsome sum of forty dollars. Four dollars a pair for chickens appears to us a pleasant compensation for the business of raising poultry, worthy of the consideration of farmers.

JENNY LIND INCOG .- Jenny Lind, during requires some one hundred and twenty clerks to do the condensed business of the head of the being caged all day long in her magnificent suite of rooms at the Burnet house, and as coming out only in the evenings to charm the as learn from the Augusta Republic that two students in Emory College, Oxford, Ga., while standing together in Bishop Andrews' yard, got into a quarrel, when one drew a pistol and shot the other dead upon the spot. The name of the murdered man was Middlebrook; that of a shopkeeping tete-a-tete with her over a piece of goods; and the crowds who have stood for hours at the doors of the Burnet house, in the ope of catching a glimpse of her as she passe to her carriage, have seen her come in and go out without the least suspicion of who or what she was .- Cincinnati Chronicle.

MONROE EDWARDS .- The following is taken from a San Jacinto (Texas) correspondent of the Franklin (La.) Banner: "I was informed here yesterday, to my surprise, that the mother and sister of the notorious Monroe Edwards live within about twenty miles of this place, and are much respected. The old lady is said to be very agreeable, and always in fine spirits."

> THE PRIVATEER .- Everything remains in statu quo as respects the Cleopatra. She is still at her berth, foot of North Moore street, engaged probably as one of the hands on board a few days ago said she would be, "eating herself up." The guard marines are still on board; a sentinel, with his musket, pacing, as before stated, back and forth in front of the gangway. Nothing new, we believe, has occurred in regar to her. The question with respect to her alleged destination will probably be presented to the grand jury, which will meet early in next week.

Destructive Fire in Cincinnati. CINCINNATI, Sunday, May 4.

A most destructive fire broke out last night in a lumber-yard on the corner of Race and Columbia streets, which destroyed about twenty buildings, including the large liquor store of Wright & Brother. With this exception, the houses were all mostly private residences. The loss is not yet known, but it is very heavy. Our city is dreadfully infested with thieves, and this ire was doubtless the work of an incendiary.

Fatal Accident at Lynn.

High Rock, Lynn, Friday, May 2.

To the Editor of the Tribune: A most melan-choly and fatal accident occurred in our vicinity to-day, of which you will doubtless be apprised ere this reaches you. A young man by the name of Davis, accompanied by a young lady, Miss Churchill, both of this city, went on a ride to Marblehead this forenoon. On visiting the fort at that place, and while passing along a steep embankment, the horse became uneasy and Mr. Davis jumped out to hold him, but without success; the horse backed off the steep embankment with Miss Churchill in the carriage. The distance which they fell was some thirty feet, and the horse and carriage both falling upon the young lady, she was instantly killed, her neck being broken. Mr. Davis, almost frantic on hearing her screams, eaped off the fearful height to her assistance, but without avail. He only witnessed her dying struggles. He is doubtless much injured, though so excited by the terrible calamity to his companion that he wists not yet his own bodily sufferings. The deceased was about nineteen years of age, the daughter of one of our most respectable citizens, Mr. Ivory Churchill; was an amiable and accomplished young lady, and her melancholy fate will long be lamented by a large circle of acquaintances and JESSE HUTCHINSON.

GEORGETOWN AND ITS AFFAIRS.

Georgetown, May 6-12 m. The extremely bad weather of yesterday put such a damper upon every thing, that we have no news of any moment to note, nor business transactions to report. Several of our townsmen, who are engaged in the fishing business, have cut out their seines and returned home. The most of them, I understand, have done good business.

DEATH.

At Woodfield, Ohio, on the 1st instant, after a short but severe illness, Mr. ENOS M. MORRIS, in the 24th year of his age, son of the Hon. Joseph Morris.

Though painful at all times and under all circumstances to part with those we love, yet in this sad bereavement the family circle and immediate friends and acquaintances of the deceased have much to console them. Early impressed with the knowledge and the fear of sin, he constantly kept in view the rich promises held out by his Divine Master to those who observe his commandments and faithfully persevere unto the end. During the administration of President Polk the deceased was a resident of Washington, and by his gentlemanly and anniable administration of President Polk the deceased was a resident of Washington, and by his gentlemanly and amiable deportment won the affection and esteem of all who made his acquaintance. But he is gone, and we humbly trust to the fruition of a well-spent life. Peace to his memory!
